

Survey on the positive effects of public investment on economic growth (1/4)

171

In your opinion, can most national governments do little or much to increase sustainable economic growth?

Governments can do only a little to increase sustainable economic growth

 13 %

Governments can do a lot to increase sustainable economic growth

 73 %

Governments tend to obstruct economic growth by too much regulation, taxation, etc.

 13 %

Don't know

 1 %

Survey on the positive effects of public investment on economic growth (2/4)

167

In general, do you think national governments could spend more on public investment to achieve sustainable economic growth?

Governments could spend slightly more

Governments could spend a lot more on public investment

No, they could not spend any more on public investment

Don't know

Survey on the positive effects of public investment on economic growth (3/4)

171

What do you think is the top priority for new public investment to bring about faster economic growth in your country?

Infrastructure (roads, ports, telecommunications, etc.)

Education and training (for the development of human capital)

Research & Development (to improve innovation & efficiency)

The FDI “offer” made to foreign companies (e.g. investment in place-making to attract FDI; investment in a well-educated/skilled workforce)

Survey on the positive effects of public investment on economic growth (4/4)

169

Which one of the governance factors below do you think is most important for the successful delivery by government of a public investment strategy in your country?

Strong commitment of public sector leaders (civil servants, executives) to development and economic growth

A capable civil service

Support of the public for Government's policies

A long-term strategic vision for the country

